Bohemia Jazz Fest
July 11 - 19

Bohemia Jazz Fest has quickly become one of the largest summer music festivals in Europe.

All the concerts are open-air, featuring headline performers playing in spectacular medieval settings. And all the concerts are for free. The festival started in 2006 by acclaimed jazz guitarist Rudy Linka, who wanted to present and promote world-class jazz in the Czech Republic. By 2010 it was drawing more than 70,000 jazz fans to historic town squares throughout the country, making a significant economic impact. The main partner of the event is Ceska Sporitelna.
