About us

Organized by the Delphi Economic Forum since 2018, the Sofia Economic Forum serves as a high-level convergence point for the most influential Bulgarian and international political, corporate, and intellectual leaders aiming to address the pressing challenges confronting Bulgaria, Europe, and the wider world.

The Forum's objective is to identify growth obstacles, learn from other countries' policies, promote corporate social innovation, and develop strategies for competitive and inclusive economies in Bulgaria and Southeast Europe, while aiming at creating a platform of dialogue and communication among prominent personalities from the world of governance, academia and business.
